

the idea

a fresh and fruity wine for any daily occasion

the vines varieties

50% Montepulciano

50% Merlot

the vineyard

surface: 2,5 Ha

plantation spacing: 2,50x0,80 density: 5.000 stocks/Ha altitude: 220 m o.s.l.

direction of slope: south, south-east pruning system: running Cordon year of plantation: 2002 soil: loamy, calcareous, with soil skeleton yield: grapes: 10 t/Ha; must: 70 Hl/Ha in the vineyard

winter pruning, shoot's selection, leaf stripping, green pruning, grape's thinning, harvest by hand: Merlot: 1st week of September; Montepulciano: 1st week of October in the cellar

destalking and pressing of grapes, alcoholic fermentation under temperature control for about 10 days; devatting, malo-lactic fermentation; refining in stanley steel for about 4 months; light filtering (1 µ); bottling.